

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

HCRP program helps individuals and families to break free from homelessness. Homeless households are rapidly moved out of emergency shelter or off the streets and into permanent housing.

This program serves individuals and families who would likely remain homeless without assistance.

Assistance is provided to help households to obtain affordable housing and to increase self sufficiency.

How can I apply?

Please call your County Service Provider listed on the back of this brochure.

Remember households must be screened to determine eligibility based on program requirement and level of need.

HOMELESS CRISIS RESPONSE PROGRAM

Region 16

A Coordinated Community Project with the goal to continue to provide services and expand collaboratively to prevent and end homelessness.

RAPID RE-HOUSING

The goal of the HCRP program is to promote housing stability. Every household assisted by the program is provided case management to help them identify needs, establish a safe living situation, and to create a plan that connects them to the resources needed to help them obtain and maintain housing.

Each household's case plan may include:

- Case Management
- Referrals to housing opportunities.
- Referrals to community services.
- Referrals to employment and or educational opportunities
- Budgeting assistance.

WHO IS SERVED

Individuals and families who have:

- No other housing options such as family or friends.
- Lack the financial resources and support networks needed to obtain immediate housing.
- Head of household who is at least 18 years of age.
- Must meet literally homeless definition.

Literally homeless definition:

- Sleeping in a place not meant for human habitation (car, tent, outside, etc.)
- Residing in an emergency shelter
- Timing out or graduating from transitional housing
- In hospital or institution for up to 90 days (but homeless prior to entry)
- Fleeing Domestic Violence
- Living in a motel/hotel paid by federal, state or local government programs, or paid by charitable organizations.
